

Mike grew up in the Mojave Desert and attended college at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

He worked for JCPenney for 28 years, holding a variety of store and corporate jobs. He has lived in several communities across California, eventually moving to Dallas in 2001.

In 2013 he retired and moved to Oklahoma City and finally to Norman in 2024, where he found a home and family at St. Michael's. He hopes to help our church grow and continue its mission.

His wife, Kathy, is a childhood friend and fellow desert rat. He has 3 children and 3 grandchildren.
